Brief CV

What you are about to see isn't just an idea that has just been plucked out of the air, rather, it is a proposal based on some pretty good evidence: This presentation concerns numerous strange things that have happened, and which still ARE happening as I type these words.

We cannot provide ALL of the answers to the UFO mystery - but we can provide a few prime clues.

As well as having several important associates we can boast the added advantage of living in Farnborough, Hampshire, home of British Aviation ...No 1 in Leading Edge Technology outside of America - with our British Earth and Aerial Mysteries Society HQ overlooking the Farnborough TAG airfield, and just a short distance away from a major Research Laboratory and Test Facility called QinetiQ, which has close ties with the military.

My name is Kenneth John Parsons, and I am an experimenter of Paranormal/Alien Phenomena; my working background is in research and journalism.

My partner, Hilary Porter, is an Alien Abductee and an Abduction Counsellor; she used to be employed as a draughtswoman at Marconi Space and Defence Systems.

Hilary's uncle was head of Janes Aviation and the Carroll Aircraft Corporation, plus he also helped teach some members of the Royal Family to fly - a very useful contact to have.

Together, both myself and Hilary run BEAMS - The British Earth and Aerial Mysteries Society.

Much more than just some 'bizarre conspiracy theory' - (as the Masonic-Controlled Media have dubbed our discoveries) -

This isn't a 'conspiracy theory' at all - but a set of connected Conspiracy FACTS!

As I said, we don't have all the answers in this presentation, but soon we will be sharing with you data about Deep Underground Bases, Abduction, Flying Saucer Craft and Alien Entities, much of which is relevant to where we live in Farnborough.

Reported back in the 1980's and 90's and far more recently, you will see objects and creatures that look more like something out of a 1960's B-Movie... such as a 'Supreme Creator' Alien and other Exotic Beings which also look like science fiction fantasies; but here's the twist, they're not, and we will offer some explanations of why we are convinced that is so.

This is controversial material, little of which would make any sense to the average man on the street - who would simply prefer NOT to know.

Yes, evidence like this may 'creep' many folk out, particularly those with a Mental Block about these type of things, many of whom would prefer to bury their heads in the sand out of fear, or ignorance, conveniently dismissing anything so seemingly bizarre.

Doubtless, some people will simply not read this discourse thoroughly; rather, they will skip and 'scan' pages, and as a result miss many important pieces of evidence which help to form the bigger picture.

Make no mistake, this isn't conspiracy nut stuff, quite the opposite, although perhaps only True Initiates of the UFO topic may fully appreciate the significance of what we are about to reveal.

The UFO Connection

Five tell of UFO sightings

FIVE people have described their sightings of UFOs to audiences in Camberley.

One man was walking his dog on land just outside Aldershot and another watched an object over Knaphill for some time before it disappeared at a "phenomenal speed".

Mr Ken Seddington, who is giving the lectures, said later: "It can no longer be considered cranky or abnormal.

"Over the years there have been so many sightings that they cannot all be dismissed.

"The people who do see UFOs often refuse to tell anyone in case they are considered crazy.

"I was pleased that they came along and were happy to relive the experience.

"They were all very clear about seeing objects which they could not explain."

Mr Seddington, who has been investigating UFO sightings for many years, is UK Director of the World UFO Congress.

He is giving three lectures at Tekels Park in Camberley entitled "UFOs — The Evidence."

The final lecture takes place tonight but Mr Seddington has said he is likely to follow up with more because of the amount of interest.

Several years ago, the "News" reported a case of a woman driving along Red Road, Lightwater, who saw a "flying saucer" pass over her car and shoot out into space.

There have been other similar reports across the area.

If you think that it's just a few of 'us' seeing weird stuff around here in Farnborough...
...then think again!

Fleet, Near Farnborough, Hampshire, UK: Location of Sighting: Fleet (nr Farnborough), Hampshire: Date of Sighting: 1992 - 1994: Time: 12-12:30 (Lunchtime)

Witness Statement: I've lived in Farnborough since 1971, I've witnessed a few strange things at night (humming noise and lights) but this one event stands out and it's always bothered me, it's a great mystery.

It happened way back in the early 1990's I think between 1992 and 1994. It was a sunny day with clear blue skies so I guess it was somewhere between Spring and Autumn.

It was my lunch-hour between 12 and 12:30, I was driving towards the multi-storey (Albert Road?) in Fleet to do some shopping, the car park was up the road on my left and the road was pointed towards Farnborough (and the RAE) which was about 2 miles away. The first thing I noticed were the cars in front of me slowing and stopping, some people even getting out of their cars and pointing excitedly and anxiously up the road towards the horizon. I looked, and saw a large dark disk shape (possibly very large, it was hard to tell the distance). It was moving very, very slowly and silently from left to right with its 'nose' pointed up at about 45 degrees.

This was a very strange attitude for an aircraft, and this looked nothing like any aircraft I'd ever seen.

Was it an Airship (or Dirigible)? A likely explanation given Farnborough's history. But no, I've seen enough of them in my time, this thing looked nothing like an Airship, it seemed solid metallic even, had no signs of outboard motors powering it, and was a perfect saucer shape. I'm convinced it was no Airship. I saw dozens of people staring in utter disbelief, mouths wide open, some looked scared, others excited and jumping up and down. One man walking along the pavement stopped suddenly with a start and dropped both his shopping bags it was almost like something out of a movie. I didn't just get a fleeting glimpse of this UFO, I watched it for about 1 minute (possibly shorter, but certainly at least 30 seconds), along with everyone else. I'd stopped in traffic to observe, mouth wide open in disbelief, I couldn't believe what I was seeing.

As if this wasn't enough, with a sudden roar 2 black military helicopters (I think they were Gazelles) roared in straight up the road from behind me heading directly for it as if on an intercept course. Then it seemed I'd lose sight of it over the horizon and I had to see what would happen when the helicopters reached it; so I quickly drove up the car-parks circular ramp, made my way to the top (open air) floor (only 1 storey up) so I'd get a good look at it. So I lost sight of it for all of about 1 minute. I flew out my car and rushed to the side of the car park for a good view, I was excited but also anxious and kind of a little scared.

But, I saw nothing. The UFO had disappeared, and there was no sign of the helicopters. From where I was I should have got a perfect view but there was absolutely nothing to be seen. Everything felt very weird and wrong, the cars that had stopped and all the excited people had already moved on - it was as if it never happened.

It's plagued me for years, did I dream it? No. I told a UFO enthusiast at work about it the moment I got back from lunch and it's something they regularly brought up in conversation for several years. Whatever I saw I saw that lunchtime, in my car I wasn't asleep at the wheel!

All the people that I witnessed looking at it, and nothing appeared in the local press. Things to take away: I'm a professional engineer and a totally "normal" rational person, I got a good look at this not just a fleeting glimpse my eyes were not playing tricks, lots of other people saw it and were similarly gobsmacked by what they were seeing. I've always lived in Farnborough, I've seen many strange aircraft, I'm an experienced observer what I saw was NOT normal or easily explained; and the helicopters? Black, maybe unmarked, military helicopters racing towards it at full speed.

What was it all about? And why am I the only one (possibly) who seems to remember it.

“Let’s just say that in 1969 while at 1 & 3 TRRE, it was about 9:30 pm and looking over to the RAE Farnborough, there was a very bright light moving slowly just above the tree line.

I went into the EX A/T block and dragged all the lads out, they too watched, as the light, although bright, did not light up the area as it should; it then moved quickly, about a half mile at a time across the restricted area.

When it left, it moved like a bullet shooting upwards and away from Farnborough, in under two seconds, it was gone... and it was as I recall a clear night, and in 69’ we had nothing that could move THAT fast!!

An interesting place to be hovering over at that time, perhaps it was the Yanks or the Ruskies, who knows? But it wasn't of this world!”

And then there's this....

...another local flying saucer case...(please advance to the next slide).

Two large saucer-shaped objects encountered by family in car in Surrey, UK

Date: September 15, 1985

Location: Bagshot Heath, Surrey, United Kingdom

David and Susan McMurray were driving home across Bagshot Heath, Surrey, to Farnborough, Hampshire, with their two children when they encountered a "huge saucer-like craft about 50 ft. long with brilliant lights coming from portholes around the centre. Then it suddenly took off." When a second craft began to tail the family's car David stopped, got out and went to investigate. But it too, took off.

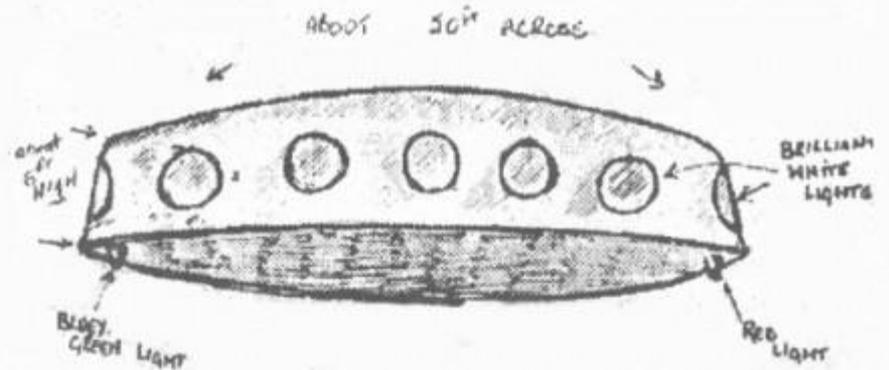

Susan, 25, a hairdresser, said: "When David tried to start his car the battery was drained." She added: "I saw the two things with my own eyes. It was an incredible experience."

One UFO was also spotted five miles away by salesgirl Lyn Brookes, 24, of Wokingham, Berkshire.

She said: "It hovered in one spot for about five minutes.

"I was really frightened. It was as if it was watching me."

Now David has sketched the strange craft and is sending his drawing to the Ministry of Defence who are to investigate.

here's a few more local UFO cases...

Cross reference this with the 1978 sighting made by my partner Hilary; the 2004 Aldershot case is quite similar to hers, except with Hilary's, the object actually burned her face from possible radiation given off by this thing.

UFO Sighted in the Skies Above Aldershot

The News: Friday, September 10 - 2004

The sighting of a mystery object in the sky over the weekend has baffled passers-by, air traffic control experts and Army officials. An Aldershot couple, who did not want to be named, spotted the object on Saturday afternoon as they played with their sons in Aldershot Park. The cigar-shaped object appeared in the sky at about 2.15pm and the family watched it ducking around for around 20 minutes. "It caught our attention because it didn't move like an aircraft," said the mother, who was in the field opposite the car park entrance in Guildford Road.

"We watched it for about 20 minutes. It was a shiny cylinder-shaped object. It flew in apparently random moves and it turned and moved horizontally, vertically and diagonally." The News received several other calls about sightings. The director of Farnborough International Airport Ann Bartaby said the object was nothing to do with them: "I have spoken to air traffic control and they didn't see anything unusual and nothing was reported to us." A spokeswoman for the Army said she too was baffled and the Army was not responsible for the unidentified object. "We were not flying any type of cylinder-shaped aircraft on Saturday afternoon," he said. "Without any further details it is quite hard to say, but I doubt this has anything to do with the Army."

Name: Kath Adams

Sighting Location: Fleet Hampshire

Sighting Time & Date: 02.30 am winter 1987/88

Sighting Details: Awoke to a humming noise outside, I had two windows in bedroom, (we lived in bungalow at the time and my bit had a flat roof) the window opposite my bed had little lights various colours flickering all over it, the lights did not light up the room, then there was this quick explosive bang and everything disappeared. This happened in about approx 30 seconds. I jumped up woke whole house up thinking there had been a crash of some sort. There was nothing. The only thing I could find remotely close to my experience is a report in the local newspaper about reports of a humming noise, but it wasn't the same year. – July 27, 1984

To give a sense of scale, here is a picture of BEAMS founder Ken Parsons, superimposed next to the creature, just to show how tall 'it' actually was!

This is a sketch made by Hilary Porter, who had a number of bedroom visitations by 'alien greys' some years before I met her - and still does from time-to-time.

Hilary's description was that a portal would suddenly open up in the bedroom wall and these beings would be ushered through by a tall, black, cowled figure.

The beings would gather around her bed, look deep into her eyes and then no matter how much she resisted, they would abduct her to a waiting craft.

There is a suggestion that this procedure may not always have been physical, but performed using molecular transference.

However this was achieved, (taken physically or in a sort of out of body state), Hilary was always 'returned' to her bed with various gynaecological wounds, scars and marks about her person, and she always felt most ill and disoriented after each experience.

These have been just a few of the things that have been experienced living close to this Top Secret facility at Farnborough:

This isn't just imagination, we have gathered definite proof as much as we have been able to...

...evidence such as the unaccountable body wounds, the eye witness testimony, drawings and even photos.

Something strange is going here for sure.

Alien abduction/visitation has affected other members of Hilary's family here in Farnborough as well; but it must be said, that when it comes to this kind of problem, it can generally affect entire families anyway - no matter where they may live!

Although most are too afraid to speak publicly about it all, a few of Hilary's relatives have revealed some shocking recollections to us - mental flashbacks of things that they believed may have happened to them.

Over the years we have heard the same kind of things from a handful of other Farnborough residents too ...of strange alien/paranormal-type encounters, the feeling that they have been 'taken' and 'messed about' with...

It must also be remembered that many other cases go unreported, as some victims prefer to just dismiss this type of experience and get on with their lives, putting any such disturbing memories to the back of their mind ...simply because it's easier that way.

Over a few decades the total abduction figure for our region may run into the high hundreds; but nowadays, things do seem to have quietened down somewhat regarding such matters; which indicates that either 'they', (whoever/whatever), have slowed down their snatching program, or it is possible that to avoid attention, these operations have moved further afield.

There's Always Been Something Strange About Farnborough

1950 UFO sighting over Farnborough

Dr David Clarke who is a leading authority on UFOs and the alien presence, says that one of the most tantalising cases that he has ever researched involved two sightings by an RAF test pilot, Stan Hubbard, in 1950.

In the first sighting, the airman reported seeing a flying "discus shape", around 100ft in diameter, approaching and pass overhead as he was walking along the runway at Farnborough airfield.

Two weeks later, he was in the airfield's control tower with five other airmen when they spotted a similar object and watched it for around 10 minutes.

The incidents were investigated by the MoD's "Flying Saucer Working Party", but they concluded that it must have been a "quite normal aircraft".

In later years, when asked about the MoD's conclusion, Stan Hubbard said "Absolute rubbish," - "my engineering experience convinced me it was not of this earth. We do not have the technology capable of that sort of performance."

“On the morning of 15 August, a dry, clear summer’s day, Flight Lieutenant Hubbard was walking along the airfield runway towards his quarters. He later recalled his attention was attracted by what he described as ‘a strange distant humming sound’. I had the chance to interview him in 2002 and he remembered then how, turning to investigate, he saw in the direction of Basingstoke an object that looked ‘for all the world like the edge-on view of a discus, the sort of discus we used to throw at sports day in school ... and it was rocking from side to side very slightly ... but maintaining a very straight approach. That was something that has stuck in my mind very clearly, vividly, to this day.’

As it approached the airfield the sound emanating from the object increased in intensity to become ‘a heavy, dominant humming with an associated subdued crackling-hissing ... which reminded me strongly of the noise inside a large active electrical power station.’ He continued:

‘It was light grey in colour, a bit like mother of pearl, but blurred. It was obviously reflecting light because as it rocked it looked like a pan lid as you rotate it, with segments of light rotating around. And I could see that around the edge as it went overhead, it was a different colour, it had a definite edge to it. And the whole of the edge was a mass of tiny crackling, sparkling lights. And associated with that, there was a real impact of a very strong ozone smell.

‘There were no windows or portholes or any other characteristics at all. It was featureless, and the remarkable thing about it was there was no sound of air movement ... as the object was coming closer and then went overhead I tried to estimate its size, altitude and speed, but with the absence of any readily identifiable feature it was difficult to gauge these factors with any confidence... I guessed that its height above ground when first seen was probably between 700 and 1000 [ ft ] and since it certainly seemed to maintain altitude throughout the period of my observation, I guessed that it would have to be about 100 ft in diameter. It must have been travelling very fast, perhaps as high as 500 to 900 mph.’

“On the afternoon of 5 September 1950, just two weeks after Hubbard’s first observation, he saw what he believes was the same object again.”

“Hubbard and his colleagues then watched an incredible performance of aerobatics by what the official report describes as ‘a flat disc, light pearl in colour [ and ] about the size of a shirt button.’ Hubbard described it as ‘fluttering, as though bordering on instability, in a hovering mode, the object would swoop off in a slight dive at incredibly high speed and in quite stable flight, then stop abruptly and go into another fluttering hover mode. This performance was repeated many times ... and it appeared that all this was taking place some eight to ten miles south of us over the Farnham area.”

“The UFO was under observation for some 10 minutes during which the little crowd had swelled to more than a dozen RAF personnel. ‘They were awestruck,’ Hubbard recalls, ‘but not one of them had a camera! I remember one of them saying “Sorry Stan, I didn’t believe those first stories.” It made my day.’

Within 24 hours they were all questioned by the Flying Saucer Working Party. ‘We were not given their names and we were strictly warned not to ask questions of them, nor make enquiries elsewhere in the Ministry’, Hubbard said. ‘We were also warned not to discuss the subject later, even amongst ourselves in private.’

In point of fact, as far as Farnborough is concerned, flying saucer-type UFO sightings actually date back to at least the 1920's here.

Cynics may choose to ridicule and discard the claims of investigators like us, but it may interest readers to know something very important about our wonderful, open and above board Government: It boasts that it has released all documents pertaining to the mysterious UFO phenomenon, but the fact is some UFO files held by the Ministry of Defence are NEVER released, not even under the FOI - Freedom of Information Act, (an act which was meant to give the public a greater transparency regarding Government policies), instead they are continually reclassified Top Secret every so often.

Only those at the top know which UFO documents have never been released and which documents remain classified TOP SECRET; and of the pathetic number that are released under FOI, some of these have been redacted... with parts blacked out so as to make the information almost completely useless.

It has to be wondered what these missing sections are hiding!

April 4, 1978

Doris Luke, of Park Row, Farnham, has a close encounter with a flying saucer. She said at the time of the sighting: "It was just like a spinning top, dull black on the bottom and brilliant silver, like moonlight, on the top. It came at an angle from the north and seemed to float at a terrific speed."

April 11, 1978

Eight people reported sightings of an unidentified flying object in the skies above Farnborough and Ash.

Peter Inwood, a former wartime Royal Observer Corps member, alerted police to an electric blue UFO that changed rapidly through red, white, green, orange and gold.

Pc Alan Cragg said the object was not an aircraft and watched it for 25 minutes before it moved off.

July 27, 1984

A SPATE of mysterious, unexplained noises are heard by several people in Aldershot late at night.

The sounds seemed to cut through the atmosphere, filling the air with a loud humming.

Aldershot police said they were not aware of any problem of unexplained night-time noises of the type described.

An Army spokesman said the military had received many inquiries but could not offer any explanation about the sounds.

January 12, 1988

Sixteen-year-old Andrew Findlay joined the ranks of people who claim to have had a close encounter after seeing a UFO over Bagshot.

Andrew said: "There was a gap in the clouds and out of it came a flying saucer shaped thing. It was bright white with green lights in the middle of it."

November 1, 1994

A former policeman and his wife report seeing a mystery aircraft flying silently over Farnborough.

Mrs Bos, of Austen Road, Farnborough, said: "It was silent, had no lights and just moved along in the sky." Get Hampshire 2002

'It was about 7.40pm on the evening of the 5th of April 1978, when the brown ball hurtled towards the post. Andy jumped to head it into the net and score another goal. As his eyes looked up to judge the speed of the ball, he was distracted by a gold cigar shaped object positioned over the playing field. The game was taking place at the Manor Road football field on the Hawley Estate at Farnborough, Hants, but it was destined to never finish.

The boys all stopped in their tracks and looked upwards at the huge, hovering cigar.

Jason, Andy's friend cried out, "look at that", he was startled and frightened as the object was low down and very close. It must have been watching the boys and seemed to note their reaction, for it started to move sideways, then, red, green and blue lights began to flash along its side.

Mark was nearby, he was just about to jump across a ditch near the football field when he saw the object: he described it as "a big gold cigar" and it made a humming noise as it moved.

By now all of the youngsters were watching the craft as it hovered over them. They could distinguish two windows on the side of the "cigar" and they immediately thought of a "spaceship".

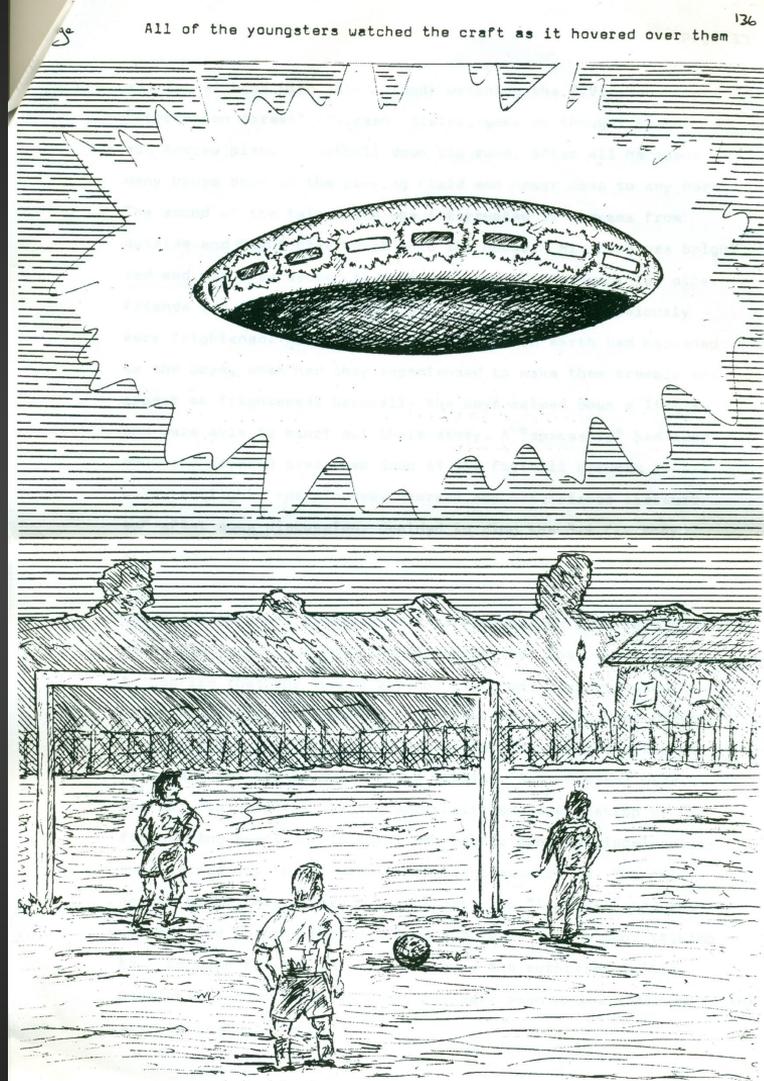

None of them had had seen anything like it before and living in the Farnborough Airfield area, they were quite used to seeing planes of all sorts.

The Royal Aircraft Establishment at Farnborough were told of the boy's experience over the telephone, but they were unable to confirm that any such strange craft was flying around in their air space.

Andrew's mother Mrs Slater, rang the local Police when the boy told her what had happened, but they dismissed the report as a "leg pull".

So much for the interest shown by the authorities about the possibility that an alien craft had been seen at low altitude in the area of the R.A.E.

The object reappeared later that evening at about 8.45pm, in the vicinity of the Slater household.' Courtesy of SIGAP: Abridged version; full report here.

AN UNUSUAL INCIDENT AT CHURT, FARNHAM: (14 miles from Farnborough)

CASE s817 from SIGAP

investigated by Omar Fowler:

[Brief background to this investigator: Omar Fowler has always been interested in aviation and objects that fly around in the sky. At the age of 17 he joined Fleet Air Arm, in which he served for 7 years. On leaving the service he spent a further three years in the field of aviation at the Empire Test Pilots School (Royal Aircraft Establishment, Farnborough)].

APRIL 06, 1978

...Later that same day, the 6th of April 1978, yet another sighting was reported from Churt, a village only 3 miles South of Farnham.

Two girls, Penny (13) and Monica (14) were walking along a country road near Churt, the time was about 9pm.

Their attention was attracted by a number of coloured lights flashing fairly low down in the sky.

At first they thought that it must have been a helicopter, but as they drew nearer, they realised that the lights were coming from a huge glowing oval object.

The body of the craft appeared to be a metallic colour and the lights around it were mutli coloured, the girls were able to take note of the positions of the various colours as they watched it for a period of four to five minutes.

Two red lights were positioned on the top right hand side, two white lights were at the top left, while at the bottom centre of the oval craft, it was possible to see two green lights. All the lights were flashing and they noticed that the green lights were flashing faster than the other two colours.

The whole body of the thing seemed to be a "shimmering silver" colour and it hovered there quite stationary, in complete silence.

The whole machine was in a classic "saucer" shape, but above all, they saw a unique feature.

Around the top rim of the UFO, there appeared to be a line of windows that ran around the top section of the craft and they were not the usual "porthole" type described by so many witnesses, but were like "insects eyes" said the girls. It was the last feature that convinced the two girls that they were looking at something very strange indeed, they turned and ran for their home as fast as they could.

They reached Monica's house within a few minutes, they arrived home and blurted out their story to her grandparents, Mr and Mrs Mitchell.

"When the girls said they had seen a UFO I thought they were joking" said Mrs Mitchell." But I changed my mind when they asked me to go back there with them, but I refused". The two girls sat and rested for a few minutes and then after some discussion, decided to return to the scene of their "encounter" and take another at this strange craft. They set off back down the road, but the UFO had now changed it's position and they caught sight of it lower down and behind and behind some nearby trees.

They ventured forward stealthily and watched the pulsating craft for several more minutes, but it was now 9.30pm and the woods where lonely at that time of night. They looked at each other, this was no place to be by themselves, anything could happen.

"This time we didn't wait" said Monica. "We were dead scared and ran home as fast as we could." They didn't stop to see the craft disappear, or what it would do next, they ran back through the night as fast as their legs would take them.

This little episode completes the story of the UFO activity around Farnborough area on the nights of the 5th and 6th of April 1978.

Almost certainly the same 'parent' craft' had been responsible for the various sightings reported." End report: Sketch of craft on next slide.

Cody photo gets the shakes

Dear Sir.
DERA News October 1996
On page eight of your very informative News Magazine I read with great interest about the Presentation of Certificates of Approval to members of the Air Fleet Department in front of Cody's Tree.

Three of us, including Maurice Shakespeare, members of Farnborough Air Sciences Trust and the Cody Society, were looking at this picture together when we realised that something was wrong with it.
Of course, the famous Cody's

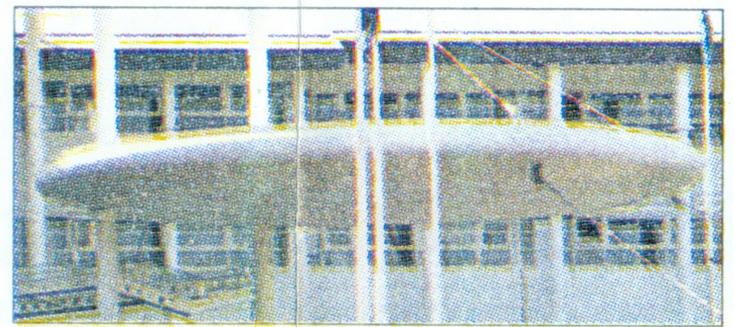

Tree is well known to us and it may be that being under the 'Flying Saucer' certain things are beginning to happen! On page three, the 'Boffin's' 'Small Talk' does refer very obliquely to this when he mentions UFOs etc.
It may well be Sam Cody's alter ego protesting at the removal of his famous Tree from its old site near the Black Sheds and then again it may be that Flying Saucer, which incidentally does look rather like the early flying machine of Emanuel Swedenborg, circa 1713 (diag. enclosed). This famous philosopher together with Cody may well be able to exert such a supernatural influence so that your picture on page eight, was printed the WRONG WAY ROUND!!!! Maurice pointed out that Derek Barter is shaking the LEFT hand of one of the Department Heads. Only Boy Scouts and one other group of people use their LEFT hands.

However, I am sure you will be having other manifestations around and about Cody's Tree and Cody's Building and his gate. So we shall all be on the lookout for these besides the 'Corn Circles'!!!

With Best wishes, keep up the high standard of your publication.
Sincerely,
Sydney Foster,
Councillor,
Cody Society etc.

The editor replies: very well spotted, Councillor. In fact, the 'Flying Saucer' must have worked its magic on the photographer's camera, as the photograph was supplied to us the wrong way round. Having forgotten most of my Scouting lore, I failed to notice Dr Steeden's left-handed grip! Thanks for your kind words about DERA News.

ee WORDS ABOUT DERA NEWS.

In the mid 1990's this structure became fondly known as 'The Farnborough Flying Saucer', by both DERA staff and site visitors.

Aviation Past and Future

So now we can see, that this 16ft saucer replica is not just a 'canopy', (as a certain other *researcher glibly tried to dismiss this as), but rather, it is a symbolic representation of the Future of Aviation.

*What did this investigator expect to find... a big neon sign with an arrow pointing to the disc saying 'look - here it is folks, our replica of a Flying Saucer'? It's here alright, but they don't exactly advertise the fact.

...and next to this stands Cody's tree - which symbolically represents Aviation in The Past:

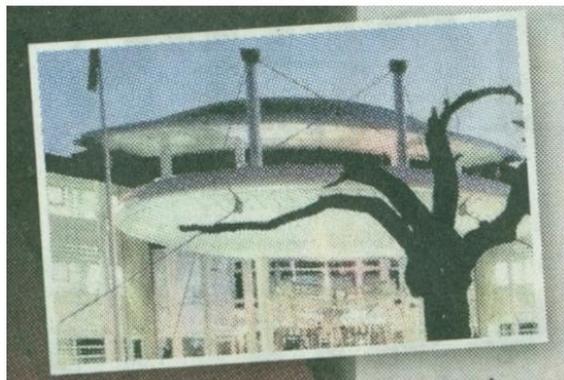

Samuel Franklin Cody is recognised for having achieved the first heavier than air, powered, controlled and sustained flight in the UK; this feat was accomplished at Farnborough, in Hampshire, on the 16th October 1908.

When Cody was testing his first aeroplane, he tied it to a tree in order to assess the pulling power of its propeller. The tree became known as the Cody Tree and survived for many years.

Eventually an aluminium replica was cast and marks the spot to this day.

In these images, one can clearly see that it isn't just a 'canopy' - but an independent structure.

If this is only a 'canopy' as some claim, then why wasn't the 16ft disc constructed much closer to the main building, thus eliminating the need for the steel and glass cover? (which to the eye, looks like a design afterthought).

Note; as visitors stroll through this area, (marked on here by a yellow line), they could be unknowingly, participating in a kind of ritual; of leaving the past behind, (marked by the Cody Tree), and moving forward into a future world, (symbolized by the suspended 'Flying Saucer') - which in turn leads directly into the main entrance via a short covered pathway; the modern day equivalent of an ancient ceremonial avenue? Masonic/Illuminati symbolism and occultism at its most daring. Welcome to The Magic Kingdom!

And now - top section shown with a quick bit of airbrushing applied to remove pole and cables - thus giving the viewer a better idea of what this structure represents.

Emanuel Swedenborg was a Swedish scientist, philosopher, theologian, revelator, and mystic. He is best known for his book on the afterlife, Heaven and Hell. Swedenborg had a prolific career as an inventor and scientist: Swedenborg also pursued an active career as a Jacobite spy on behalf of the Swedish government, that he was a Freemason and used secret Masonic networks to relay intelligence back to Sweden and to undertake other secret missions. At the same time he played a prominent role in Swedish public institutions concerned with mining, finance and politics. Gleaned from the DERA literature that was smuggled out for BEAMS by a friend who worked there, we believe that this is what the 'Farnborough Flying Saucer' structure was based on - Swedenborg's futuristic, prophetic design.

Right: Emanuel Swedenborg's flying saucer (1714).

In our opinion, (and as some records suggest), the structure at QinetiQ has a dual function/purpose;

a/ as a canopy and covered walkway
b/ as a clever piece of symbolism relating to the flying saucer phenomenon.

From what we can tell after making some discreet enquiries, generally, most people who work at TAG don't even know themselves the true meaning of this installation; sure, they know all about the history of the Cody's Tree replica standing nearby, yet the majority simply believe what they are told regarding the neighbouring object; should anyone ask ...'it is a canopy': As if programmed, workers walk beneath it daily, never looking up at the massive structure, not taking a blind bit of notice. Whereas in the days when the site was DERA - the Defence Evaluation Research Agency, this disc was proudly referred to as the 'Farnborough Flying Saucer', but today we hear of no such talk... why?

If this next anecdote is anything to go by the people employed here now are far less candid, or is should that be far more secretive?

We had one individual contact us after he came across our 'Magic Kingdom' presentation online, who claimed to work at QinetiQ: He tried to kid us that there is nothing at all strange about this place, quite the opposite, going as far as saying that their aren't even any security cameras in operation there!

“After going on the BEAMS site and looking at your Magic Kingdom presentation, I was reminded of something that my family and I saw back in 2001.

We were driving along in our car back to Fleet from Cove, along the Ively Road, Farnborough; this was at a time just before the Ively Road became closed off to the public and eventually becoming part of Qinetiq, along with what remained of the National Gas Turbine Establishment.

It was a Sunday morning and at a particular spot to one side of the road in a clearing, something very large and jet black took our eyes; as we turned our heads right we all momentarily saw to our surprise a large rectangular black shape amongst the trees, a funny flat object, which I estimated to be at least as big, as say, the new (West Heath) bridge, Cove.

There was a flurry of construction activity going on at the site but unfortunately we were travelling fairly fast, (so only got a quick peep), and we couldn't stop, as we had other traffic behind us.

As a family, we talked about what we had seen and it gave us plenty of food for thought as to just what could be going on.

We went past this spot again just a few weeks later but unfortunately the black 'rectangle' had gone.

We always thought it strange just why the Ively Road was cut off like it has been, as severing the road like this makes life more difficult for the motorist, and now we have to detour all round the new road system to Fleet.

I had forgotten all about that day until I came across your site, and I'm glad I did because knowing what has been revealed here about a probable underground facility now begins to make some sense.

I wonder, instead of this being an 'object' as we had first described it, was the large black rectangle that we witnessed some kind of tunnel opening or even a secret entrance maybe?”

D.U.M.B.

Rumour has it that the US military have built at least 140 Deep Underground Military Bases. These are known as D.U.M.B.'s - which is a doubly ironic acronym as many people really are too dumb to realize what is happening around them; or perhaps more accurately, they simply don't want to know... and are quite happy in their ignorance thank you very much.

There are estimated to be nearly DUMB's 15,000 worldwide...

Reportedly under construction since the 1940s, these sites are on average the size of a small city, 10 - 30 miles across with an average depth of 4 miles.

In recent times, they have been carved out by massive nuclear-powered laser drilling machines and connected by underground 'Maglev' train lines.

Maglev is a title derived from magnetic levitation.

The bases are alleged to be stocked with food/supplies and even have the ability to grow crops with artificial lighting.

Why do you think governments around the world are building huge networks of underground cities?

Why are they so secret?

Where do you think the money comes from to build these?

How many readers have heard of the supposed Secret Underground facility at Peasemore, Berkshire and the tales of former base Security Officer Barry King? (If you haven't we suggest that you gen' up by Googling 'Barry King' and 'Peasemore').

His case strikes us as a bit odd, because last time we checked Barry was still around on internet UFO forums and chat rooms, openly revealing the same supposedly 'classified information' to his disciples; in the past he has even been on TV telling his story; yet records show that anyone still sworn to the Official Secrets Act, (as Barry would have been), caught blowing the whistle on something that would be so highly classified, tend not to last very long, (nudge, nudge); they are rapidly shut down in one way or another.

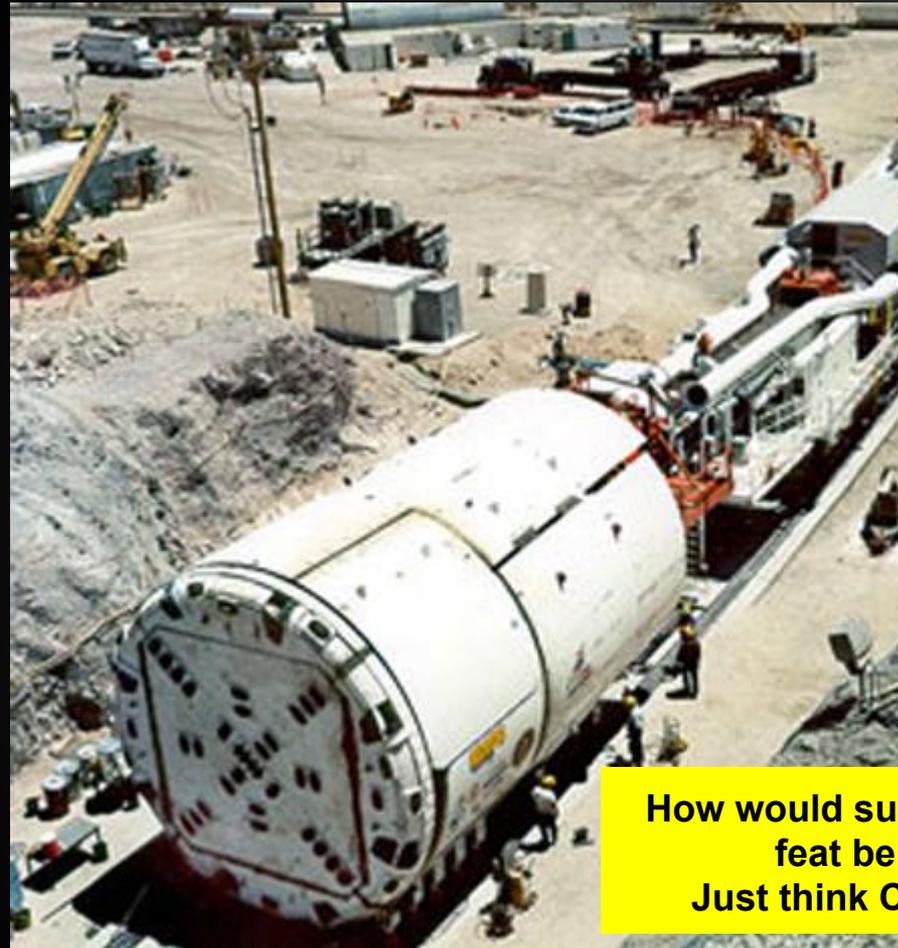

Sure, we have had a few ex-military personnel come to us at BEAMS with some extremely sensitive material, but this was always done anonymously, never revealing their true identity as Barry has done; only a fool or someone with a death wish would take their chances in such a way; unless the circumstances are exceptional, anonymity should always be the name in the whistleblowers game.

Yet we have NO doubt in our minds that there is at least SOME truth to what Barry says; although it is more than likely that the intel he is giving out is mixed in with some juicy red herrings: Maybe the facility he describes is NOT at Peasemore at all, but elsewhere; either that, or the underground section of Peasemore has since been decommissioned, and thus of lesser importance these days - with Ministry of Defence 'Special Operations' having been moved to another location; and so these stories are 'allowed' to circulate because it suits the powers that be; probably because they contain major elements of disinformation.

Those at the top know that we will never be able to prove anything either way in our big reveal, because no unauthorised person will ever gain access to the RAF Peasemore base, or it's supposed underground facility; and the same is true of QinetiQ.

Make no mistake though, such subterranean bases ARE a reality - and some of them would be gargantuan in size; but we suspect that the entrances to the most important examples may not necessarily be found in heavily wooded surroundings, behind barbed wire fences etc etc, as one might expect, (thus attracting far too much unwanted attention from the curious, such as with the Peasemore scenario), but rather, they would be hidden under our very noses, in relatively innocuous locations; vast underground cities situated at great depth, in some cases, right beneath where we live.

As with the Top Secret 'Area 51' facility in Nevada, United States, and how that officially did 'not exist' for decades, (until fairly recently) ...if what we are about to expose 'does not exist' either, (as it is bound to be claimed when these revelations get out), then our government/military have absolutely nothing to fear from us talking about it - do they?

FARNBOROUGH, HAMPSHIRE

Farnborough, Hampshire, is a great place to visit; to go and see the airshow ...with Aldershot - Home of the British Army just up the road; a nice little shopping centre there etc, etc. Cute town agreed, but not much else goes on here - right? Fallacy... that is exactly what the authorities WANT you to think - and in this town you SEE only what they want you to see.

Take it from us, when most people are tucked up under their duvets, some mighty strange stuff can happen in these parts.

Welcome To 'The Magic Kingdom'

We have it on good authority, (based on information received anonymously, from loose-lipped personnel who claimed to have worked on major military projects), that at these sites there is often much more below ground as there is above; many are supposed to contain secret underground facilities.

The list also includes Farnborough, at the former DERA - Defence Evaluation and Research Agency site - now known as QinetiQ, [pronounced 'Kinetic'] or 'The Magic Kingdom' as it was referred to in DERA's own internal publications, which has major links with the Aerospace Industry.

Questions:

If the claims are true concerning underground bases - what were the workers told about all of this extreme mining?

What did they tell their families and friends they were doing?

If there were huge underground excavations going on, then surely it would all have become common knowledge through rumour and gossip?

Answers: From basic labourer to skilled Tunnel boring machine (TBM) operator, every employee on such a project had to sign the Official Secrets Act: Break this with anything damaging, and they faced the prospect of up to 14 years in jail!

Yet, after a couple of decades of remaining silent, some ex MoD employees have privately spoken to us about these matters.

At the absolute barest of minimums, it would appear that there has been a secret underground zone at the Farnborough RAE, (Royal Aircraft Establishment), at least since the mid 1970's.

Back in the 1990's two former military guards - one who worked at the RAE Farnborough and another from the former RAF Chicksands listening base, Bedfordshire, (now called D.I.S.C. - Defence Intelligence and Security Centre), assured us that there is far more below ground as there is above at these sites.

During private, separate interviews, under complete anonymity, (the first conducted in Bedford and the other at our Farnborough HQ), which took place several years apart, these ex-military people disclosed something very important to us; how, while using Supercomputers in their huge underground facility at D.I.S.C. (accessible from an area on the base known as 'The Island'), officers at Chicksands regularly simulated possible outcomes of nuclear war with their counterparts operating from an underground command centre at D.E.R.A. - The Defence Evaluation Research Agency, (now QinetiQ), Farnborough, Hampshire.

Later though, a daring thought came to mind; what a great cover story this 'war games' proposal may be; after all, the military have rehearsed such scenarios thousands of times over - how could anything more be learned from all these strike computations?

It has to be wondered whether this idea of playing 'war games' down there below the Chicksands base, (and here in Farnborough), was merely put about as a cover story to assuage those who saw or got to hear of special personnel going below ground to this 'mystery' sector, about which accurate data would be 'restricted' to say the least.

Defence Intelligence and Security Centre

The Intelligence Corps is co-located with the Defence Intelligence and Security Centre (DISC) at Chicksands. The DISC is the UK Defence Agency responsible for training all service personnel in intelligence, security and information support.

Chicksands

Chicksands is one of the most striking military bases in the UK. The centrepiece is the remarkable 12th century Gilbertine Priory, which was home to both nuns and monks for 400 years.

By 1576, after the dissolution of the monasteries in 1538 when many religious houses were either ruined or confiscated and redistributed to royal favourites, the Priory had come into the ownership of the Osborn family. It remained in the family for a further 338 years before being sold to the War Office in 1938.

Ever since then it has been associated with intelligence operations. Chicksands was one of many Y Stations, where the German coded signals were intercepted before being passed to Bletchley Park (Station X) for decryption.

For 45 years it was the home of the United States Air Force Security Unit - they now share space in The Military Intelligence Museum with two other unique intelligence collections. The site remains firmly linked with Military Intelligence and Counter Intelligence.

We are uncertain whether Chicksands D.I.S.C. establishment ever evolved any further, but there is no doubt at all that the Farnborough operation has been upgraded and expanded out of all recognition!

So you see, we have had the best possible confirmation imaginable, from former military men who were actually employed at these places; that huge Underground Bases are a REALITY - not just the stuff of legend.

The Show of Aviation Dinosaurs?

In the main, the Farnborough International Airshow is all about making money: Military bigwigs, trade stands, reps, and keynote speeches; this week-long sales pitch west of London is where the aviation industry goes to buy and sell airplanes, helicopters, and everything needed to build them.

Then, at the weekend, (when things have been reorganised a bit), this area is open to the public.

Indeed a great day can be had by all seeing a variety of flying machines; but as we always say, everything on display, (even the UAV pictured here), are Aviation Dinosaurs, and at least 50 years behind anything developed secretly.

Truly, we believe the greatest show on earth is going on deep underground, unseen by all except the highest security clearance personnel.

Please excuse us for sounding a bit unimpressed or indifferent about these planes, but this stuff is, (yawn), all so 'yesterday' compared to the UFO craft that we have witnessed.

Sorry - no super-intelligent propulsion systems on display here.

NOW, PLEASE STUDY THIS NEXT SERIES OF PAGES VERY CAREFULLY - OR YOU MIGHT MISS SOMETHING QUITE ODD IN THE IMAGES, (WELL, WE THINK IT'S 'ODD' ANYHOW).

QinetiQ

One would have thought that the name QinetiQ should in fact be spelled QuinetiQ (with a 'U'), after its then Group Chief Executive Leo Quinn, (since resigned and now CEO at Balfour Beatty), so curious - the reasoning for it being spelt the way it is. According to one QinetiQ blog, Quinn has even applied for a trademark on the name 'qinetiqette'!

A Word of Caution

Please do not think that the Cody Technology Park is somewhere that one can just walk into sightseeing - it is NOT; generally this is a high security, military area.

Despite the 'campus', landscaped, friendly feel portrayed in their PR videos and literature, all visitors must first check in with the security gatehouse situated at the entrance, which is some way before the main QinetiQ building; the guard there is armed and there are a number of armed personnel at various points around the main complex.

Those who attempt to enter without a legitimate appointment and ID will be turned away. Facial recognition is used to confirm the identity of all visitors and there are plenty of CCTV cameras and other security devices in operation around there also.

GEMATRIA

THE NAME 'QINETIQ' HAS A JEWISH GEMATRIA VALUE WHICH IS EXACTLY THE SAME AS 'PENTAGON'!

Another piece of potentially significant information has been brought to our attention about this rather shadowy outfit in Farnborough. As most readers who are well-versed on this topic will know, the Illuminati go to so much effort to hide their esoteric communications in plain site, using symbols so blatant and obviously occult-inspired, that often they go unnoticed and unappreciated by many.

Secretly our rulers are absolutely obsessed by symbolism and numerology... SO, (apart from the streets in front of the main QinetiQ building looking like an alien when viewed from above - and apart from there being a disc-shaped structure situated smack bang on its forehead), what else is there by way of evidence that this is REALLY the case... especially as far as Farnborough is concerned?

Well, their title of 'QinetiQ' it turns out, has a Jewish Gematria value of 303... and the word 'Pentagon' also has exactly the same value! 'QinetiQ' = 'Pentagon', what are the odds of that? A bit strange don't you think?

Work it out for yourself with this Gematria Calculator <http://www.gematrix.org/>

We imagine a few readers might ask 'what the devil is Gematria when it's at home?'

Gematria /gəˈmeɪ.tri.ə/ (Greek: meaning geometry) is an Assyro-Babylonian-Greek system of code and numerology later adopted into Jewish culture that assigns numerical value to a word or phrase in the belief that words or phrases with identical numerical values bear some relation to each other or bear some relation to the number itself as it may apply to nature, a person's age, the calendar year, or the like. Gematria is a form of Jewish numerology.... and remember what we said about how those in positions of great power are so fixated with numerology.

If you are still left in any doubt, simply Google 'Illuminati' - 'Numerology' - 'Gematria' and read the results!

DERA is up for grabs

by JOHN WALTON

MOST of Farnborough's DERA site, still being rebuilt in the Pyestock area, could soon be in private hands after the Government revealed on Monday that it plans to sell off three quarters of the agency.

Around a quarter, covering sensitive research, will remain public and local MP Gerald Howarth told the Star on Tuesday that he had been assured in the Commons that the headquarters of the ramp would remain at Farnborough.

Defence Procurement Minister Baroness Symonds announced a further period of consultation on its proposals for a Public-Private Partnership for the Defence Evaluation and Research Agency, which has about 50 sites around the country. This should be completed by the summer Commons recess.

The private sector company covering three quarters of DERA work could be floated as early as next year with the Government initially retaining a stake. Depending upon market forces at the time the sale could swell Government coffers by a billion pounds.

Mr Howarth said uncertainty about the future was causing considerable disquiet amongst the staff. The proposal was not because the Government believed in privatisation but because it was unwilling to release the necessary funds to sustain the Armed Forces properly.

Mr Howarth said that apart from the ability to raise more money from the markets there was no indication that the sale would bring any other benefits. A huge number of questions remained unanswered.

Members of staff had told him that they could have earned three times the amount of money in the private sector but had chosen to do something for their country. They felt they had more freedom to undertake research.

A spokeswoman at Farnborough DERA said the development at Pyestock and the Hub would still go ahead. While there were some anxieties about the 3000 jobs at Farnborough the general feeling was of excitement. She said there were no direct plans for job cuts at all.

"There will be changes but we have had change for some time," she said. "The opportunity to grow areas to meet market demands should see all sorts of opportunities."

Meanwhile people in Fleet and Farnborough will find that their journey between the two towns will take at least ten minutes longer once Ively Road is closed and the new road opened—and all to bypass what will become a privately owned establishment. See Story on page two.

A lasting reminder

So why do this? - why incorporate a massive image of an Alien, or Supreme Creator, (a figure that can only be seen from the air) - within what we suspect to be a Top Secret Subterranean Military Site?

By using Sound-Right reasoning, we begin to appreciate why: For a start, the design can only be translated by those who hold the knowledge to decode such symbolism:

It will go unrecognised by most.

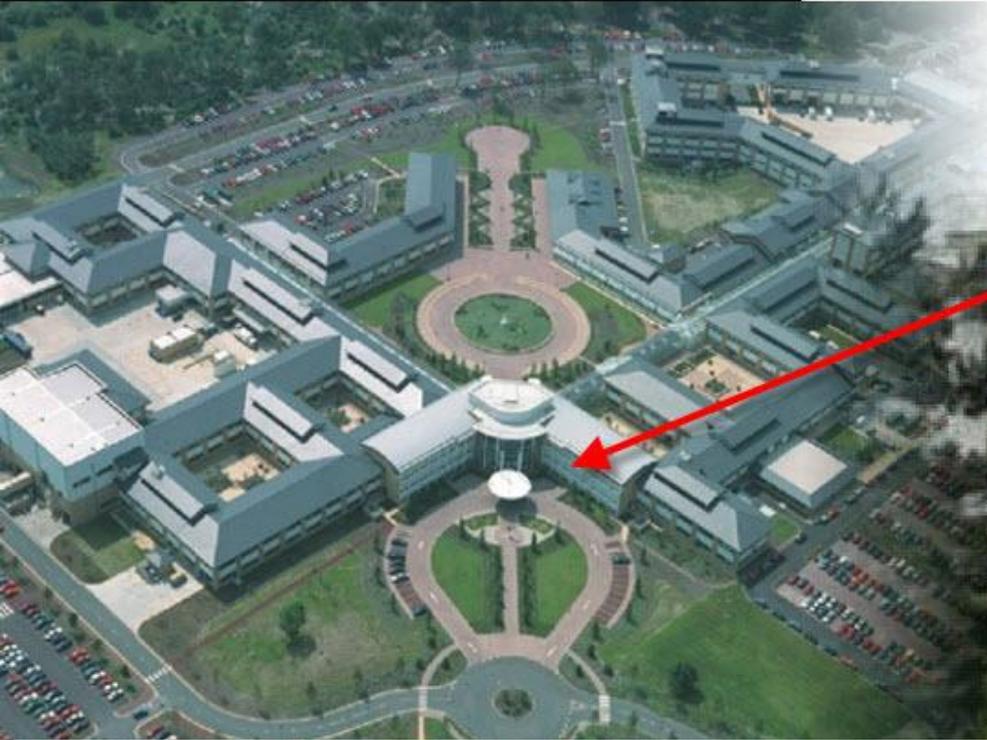

Likely enough, this New World Order crowd are quite a supercilious lot and are simply boasting of their achievements by displaying the Alien Creator symbol, (whilst having a big laugh at our expense) - content in the knowledge that we cannot fully prove our suspicions of what is at work here - or take matters into our own hands either: Just imagine if we illegally gained access to one of these D.U.M.B. facilities, and found out what they were up to - we would be arrested, (or disposed of) - NOT them. THEY haven't broken any laws - because they ARE the law and the FINAL word.

Image right: It is suspected that this is how the Illuminati see the general public - as helpless puppets who can be easily manipulated into thinking that accusations and 'conspiracy theories' about nefarious government operations could not possibly be true.

Note where this disc is positioned in relation to the Chakra points shown on the chart below.

Why did the designer of this complex choose the Highest Chakra point to position a 16ft disc on - which is the 'Crown' Chakra - a point on the body relating to Spiritual Matters?

Note also that the official representing colour for the Crown Chakra is White, same colour as the *saucer is here, (*symbolic for the Vehicle in which 'he' or 'they' first arrived to earth perhaps?).

Worth pointing out also that the outline of the head is depicted in Grey (Alien Grey/Gray?), whereas rest of its body, (the roads), is coloured in a blue-ish hue.

At the top of this Alien Hybrid's Head there is a 16ft Flying Saucer situated on its 'Crown Chakra' or 'Third Eye' area

These are its stylized Ears

Slit Nose

Typical large Eyes of a 'Grey', somewhat abstract of course

Arms

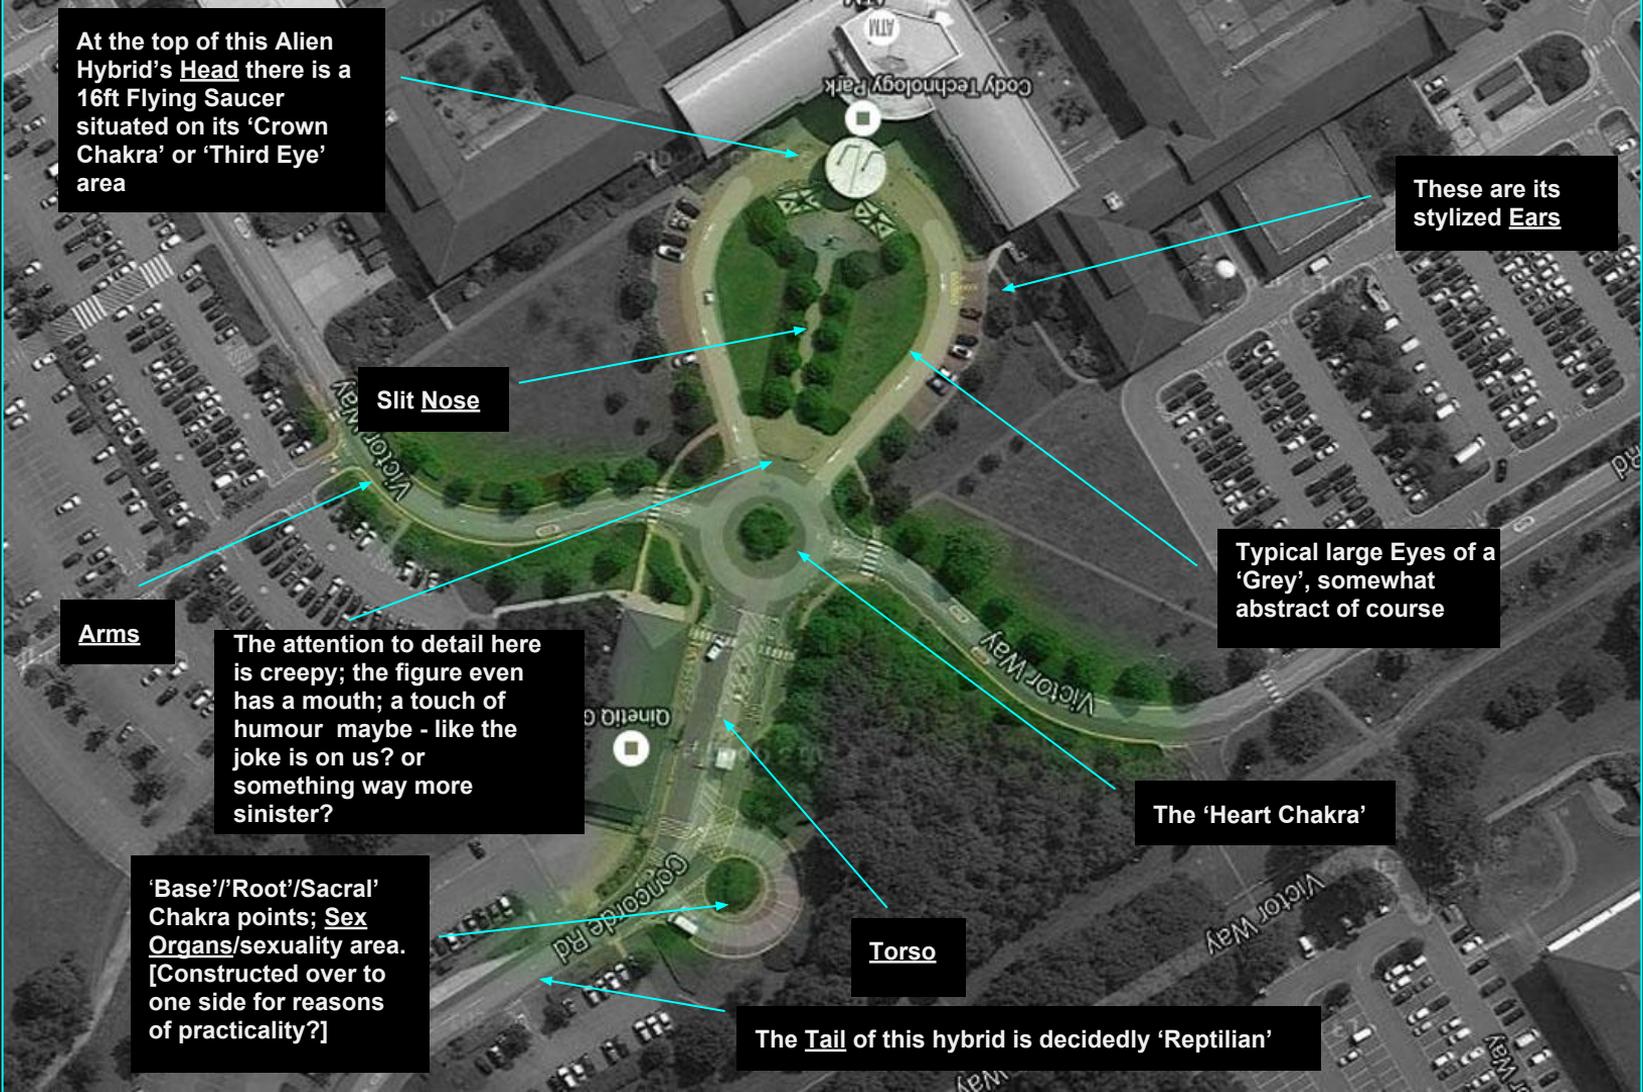

The attention to detail here is creepy; the figure even has a mouth; a touch of humour maybe - like the joke is on us? or something way more sinister?

The 'Heart Chakra'

'Base'/'Root'/'Sacral' Chakra points; Sex Organs/sexuality area. [Constructed over to one side for reasons of practicality?]

Torso

The Tail of this hybrid is decidedly 'Reptilian'

Deep Penetration

Fact: We have been informed by someone who works for a leading Geophysical Field Equipment company, that one of its biggest customers for their top end Deep Ground Penetrating Radar Instruments - which are used for mining and geological surveying - is the Military.

This information has come from an unimpeachable source.

Every year they get orders for dozens of their machines, (each costing many £thousands), from the MOD.

It has to be wondered, why does our military want so much of this equipment?

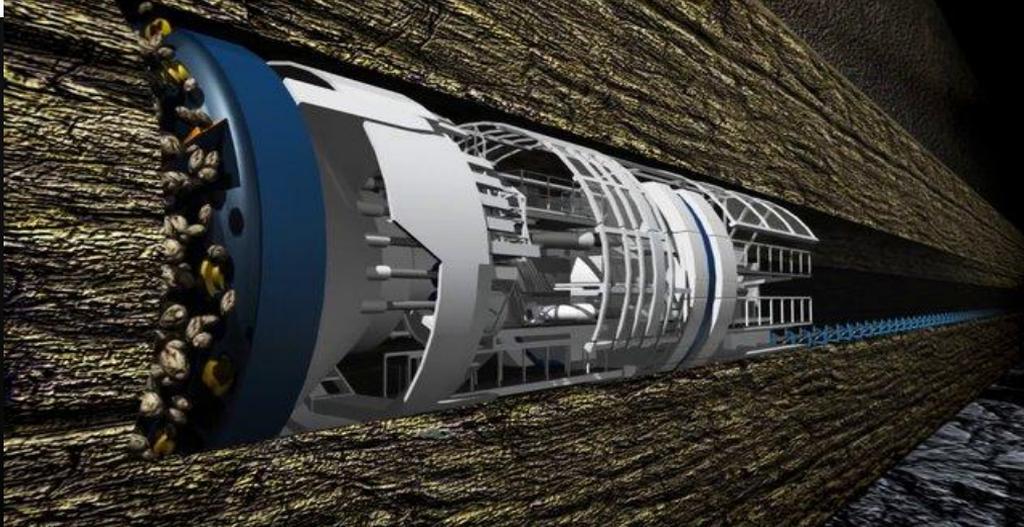

Why is it busy collecting all of this Geological data?

Think about it.

Mining

QinetiQ helps mining companies assure the safety and productivity of their people and the security of their assets, through:

Virtual reality training that makes mining safer. Jointly developed with Coal Services Pty Ltd (CSPL) in Australia, our mine safety and rescue training capability includes:

- QinetiQ's training and simulation expertise
- Mine safety training simulation software developed in the gaming industry, and
- The world's most advanced virtual reality 360-degree 3D theatre – a fully immersive, interactive environment that provides all the sights and sounds of a real mine to offer immersive hazard, emergency and rescue training

More than 2,500 miners each year are trained in this way by customers including Rio Tinto, reducing injury rates, increasing operational efficiency and minimising mine 'down time'.

Mining safety training

Protecting mine sites and operations from intrusion, damage or interruption. Our OptaSense® Distributed Acoustic Sensing (DAS) technology uses any standard fibre-optic cable to secure the perimeter of sites, and monitor assets in real-time for indicators of third party interference or accidental damage, incidents and other safety and performance-relevant activities. Events are detected, classified and located quickly and accurately to enable preventative or corrective action to be taken.

Please note: QinetiQ has massive mining interests, and also assists the mining industry with VIRTUAL REALITY TRAINING using computer-based virtual reality simulators. Our special emphasis on 'virtual reality' might seem a bit odd at first, but all will become clear as the reader progresses through this dossier - Re: MILAB.

Re: Suspected Farnborough D.U.M.B. - Deep Underground Military Base
News and Mail article, Wednesday October 7, 2015

Quote: When questioned, a spokesman for QinetiQ said; 'we are sorry to say that no such facility exists beneath Cody Technology Park.' (end quote)

Ah, denial, the most common defense mechanism; a DUMB idea even asking them we suppose.

Realistically, what other answer could be expected?

Interestingly, we noticed how this story was not covered in our local Star Courier, although it appeared in every other edition of the same freebie paper, Guildford, Camberley etc, but not Farnborough's edition... why? Continued next page.

THE Q FILES?

Is Qinetiq really Britain's Area 51?

by Natalie Garland
natalie.garland@trinitymirror.com

A MAJOR Farnborough business has dismissed claims that an alien research base exists beneath its site, following bizarre suggestions in a 109-page report from an earth mysteries society.

The British Earth and Aerial Mysteries Society (BEAMS) released the report following a special investigation into Cody Technology Park, run by aerospace developer Qinetiq.

The group believes that many UFO sightings and alien abductions have taken place in Farnborough, which members think could be down to the supposed base.

The report states: "Farnborough is a great place to visit, to go and see the airshow...but not much goes on here, right?"

"That is exactly what the authorities want you to think - and in this town you see only what they want you to see.

"Take it from us, when most people are tucked up under their duvets, some mighty strange stuff can happen in these parts.

"We have it on good authority that at these sites, there is often much more below ground as there is above - particularly at the Defence Evaluation and Research Agency, now known as Qinetiq."

Their bizarre theory is based on 'cryptic symbols' - stating that a bird's eye view of the site's road system looks like an alien.

Referring to an aerial picture of a roundabout on the site, the report said: "We suggest that this is a stylised, diagrammatic representation of a grey/reptilian figure - just like the aboriginal supreme creator paintings attempted to portray - which is only visible like this from the air."

BEAMS also says that part of a building in the site has been made to look like a flying saucer. The report even cites an article in the News & Mail's sister paper, the StarCourier, from May 1998 when DERA was put up for sale.

But a spokesperson for Qinetiq said: "We are sorry to say that no such facility exists beneath Cody Technology Park.

"However, we believe that the expertise of our space scientists, combined with the world-class test facilities at Farnborough, would make us ideally placed to study extra-terrestrial spacecraft in future should the opportunity arise."

Two of BEAMS' key researchers are chairman Kenneth Parsons and Hilary Porter, who lives in Farnborough who says she has been abducted by aliens more times than she can count.

Ms Porter believes these experiences were caused by living close to the 'top secret facility'.

FARNBOROUGH RUMBLINGS

Intermittently over a 15 year period, we had been hearing underground rumbles in Farnborough; also, as you may know, sound travels at night, and quite often, we would hear the distinct bleep, bleep alarms of reversing heavy duty lorries in the distance, and even the clanging of girders, (or something like that): In addition, imagine the noise an empty rubbish skip would make if it were dropped from a height to the ground - that is how we would describe another sudden crashing, metallic sound that we heard from time-to-time.

If anyone complained about these disturbances - should they for instance write to their council or their local newspapers about this, (which we and others did), - they would be fobbed-off with various pat answers/excuses - 'oh, it was simply military conducting anti terrorism bomb training' etc, etc, and as for the lorry and clanging sounds - these apparently were just from 'haulage vehicles used for road maintenance', yet subsequent daylight checks by us revealed no such large scale 'maintenance' on any of the major roads around here at that time.

Sure, we fully accepted the odd aerial bang and some rifle fire, (after all, this is to be expected as we were living close to Aldershot, 'Home of The British Army', and they could do what they like, when they like on their own land, (large parts of which had been commandeered/purchased especially for training purposes, farmland etc), fair enough ...but this was beyond mere 'testing' and the odd lorry - this was full-on, heavy duty stuff, and in the middle of the night too, which didn't make any sense to us - and as mentioned, this went on for the best part of 15 years: Local folk being like they are, (generally a tad docile), either simply learned to live with and put up with these disturbances, while a few others even chose to move away from the area altogether; but being the inquisitive and stubborn types that we are, Hilary and I stayed put and conducted our own search for REAL answers.

Regarding these underground noises, we contacted the BGS Earthquake Seismology Team, the UK's national earthquake monitoring agency, but after several weeks we received a reply informing us that their seismic equipment hadn't registered anything significant for the Farnborough area... so, another proverbial brick wall: Next, in 2009 we contacted a London University professor, (name/title details now forfeited to a Trojan virus on our PC), who was very interested in what we had to say - and took on our case; then, after a period of about 2 years more, he and his team eventually narrowed the problem down to within a 20 mile radius of Farnborough; unfortunately, several months after this, all contact with the investigative team was lost, and we heard no more back from them.

Thankfully, in recent years, these disturbances have quietened down considerably, (and fingers crossed it stays that way) - so presumably whatever it was they were building has now been completed.

Where Has All The Spoil Gone?

Where could the estimated multi million-tonne pile of waste material brought up during the course of such a mammoth mining operation, have gone to?

Landfill sites? Transported out to the coast and dumped at sea perhaps?

Possibly, then there are the massive 'earth' banks that were built some years ago around Farnborough Airport or TAG London Farnborough Airport - huge man-made mounds.

The countless tons of 'filler' used for this project had to come from somewhere.

The authorities must think we're all stupid, but now, after having done our homework, a likely secret is laid bare.

Image taken from a QinetiQ Virtual Reality mining training video, showing the scale of their giant earthmoving machinery.

These huge banks all around TAG/QinetiQ ARE as they seem, Earthen and covered with real grass (as opposed to Astro Turf or similar); so here may be the answer as to where some of the excavated spoil went to.

Please bear in mind that these banks are enormous and run a considerable distance around this facility, (built circa 2006) as part of the sites' landscaped design.

Let us not forget either, the GEC-Marconi scientist deaths, where between 1982 and 1990, twenty-five, (25), British-based GEC-Marconi scientists and engineers who died under mysterious circumstances, which included Marconi employees from nearby Frimley and Camberley.

Police investigations found the deaths to be unconnected and lacking evidence of foul play.

Might there be a connection here concerning Black Program Extraterrestrial/Government/Military Interests? such as these D.U.M.B.'s and the things that are supposed to go on there?

Scoping Beneath QinetiQ Using Remote Viewers

The results of official US Government scientific studies completed using 'remote viewers' indicates the definite existence of 'psychic' phenomena in humans.

Although not well understood, some of these phenomena are controllable and have profound implications for intelligence collection and security. See next page

Experiments Performed on the QinetiQ Facility Employing Independent Psychic and Remote Viewing (RV) Specialists

Remote viewers "see" objects and scenes hundreds or thousands of miles away by closing their eyes and focusing on the object or place, working from map coordinates or a very basic description of the 'Target'. Although information received through such extrasensory means can often prove to be jumbled or confusing, there is generally a core element of fact to what is revealed.

As-is, unedited, uncorrected communications:

Psychic No 1: 'Couldn't wait - curiosity got the better of me - got Google Earth downloaded and then put in QinetiQ; saw the map pinpoint, and got immediately banks of people staring at screens in underground (?) setup - that's without even trying - not very helpful but I got that it was connected with security and 'warfare' and 'monitoring'; the people doing this were kind of 'enslaved' in the mindset - don't know how to put it any other way, like battery hens.

Underground because of the ambience - artificial light and a sense of 'no daylight' and also a depressing feel about the place; lots of screens full of data, rows of numbers and a grid pattern, (almost like a 'spider's web'), that seemed to be the basis of the work done by the people staring at screen.

There were dark-uniformed staff there too - peaked caps, guns as well; these seemed to be security or military and not working on the data, more like 'minders'.

As for the car park... under that, get a tubular feeling about lots of tunnels and a big complex of interconnecting tunnels; yellow, yellowish lighting, a sort of background 'hum' as if some sort of plant or machinery is operating, some weapons down inside the tunnels... missiles? seemingly sharp needle-nosed 'weapons' of some kind... and there are laboratories also, 'specimens' in fluid.

I think of greys, deep down; not connected with the command centre directly but connected by tunnels to that.

Psychic No 1 continued:

There are lifts that don't work via the usual means, There is a connection with 'space' and satellites, beam technology/weaponry - energy grids, (an electronic grid pattern over the earth, that is to say - a grid based on triangulates), a bit like this.

Fluctuations on the energy grids are monitored like a spider feels an insect on the outer limits of the web and 'homes in'. Its a huge complex, 'black weapons', defensive; they seem to be on the alert for threats from beyond our planet, but could be used against earthly threats as well. They have a cover of conventional 'services' most of the people on the surface don't know what is underneath. Rumours circulate, Knowledge is not certain, some people suspect but can't get beyond 'top secret' screens; craft there that work on electromagnetic fields for energy source; several different projects down there. Also a connection with undersea craft, not always 'ours'. I get the feeling that reptilians are involved as well, deep, deep down - never seen except by a very few people. They are big, large I mean in size, head and shoulders above the humans. Mean and cold; no emotions. super intelligent. I got the overall feeling that it is a sinister place.

Maybe one of my spirit (guides?) helped - I found later that I had left one of them able to 'roam free', rather than being 'contained' after last dealing with them - so maybe he was on hand; the info came from 'somewhere' in a mediumistic flow.

Remote Viewer No 1

1st Attempt: Whatever you are looking for has intelligence and is able to move around; although I haven't looked at the area it's in a dense part, (woodland), there are houses around maybe a small village; also its definatly not static there seems to be a small distance between the houses or people and some kind of wood or similar; I'll post more later as i'm working on another case as well.
2nd Attempt: Had a look today and saw the configuration you described, which is why I was drawn to the woods on the perimeter; the building has an underground part to it and what goes on down there creates a lot of screaming, pain etc; there is also something in the forest. Gaining access by normal means would be impossible; although very public, there is some serious testing going on there; will get to the right block which seems to be plain white and small. Hope this helps.

“From some of the RV descriptions of this place, we get the impression that here, we might even be looking at some kind of Secret Underground Command Center.”

What D.U.M.B.'s Might Be Used For

The MILAB - (Military Abduction) and
Secret Human Experimentation Scenario

Art by Alien Abductee - Ellis Taylor

Art by Alien Abductee - Hilary Porter

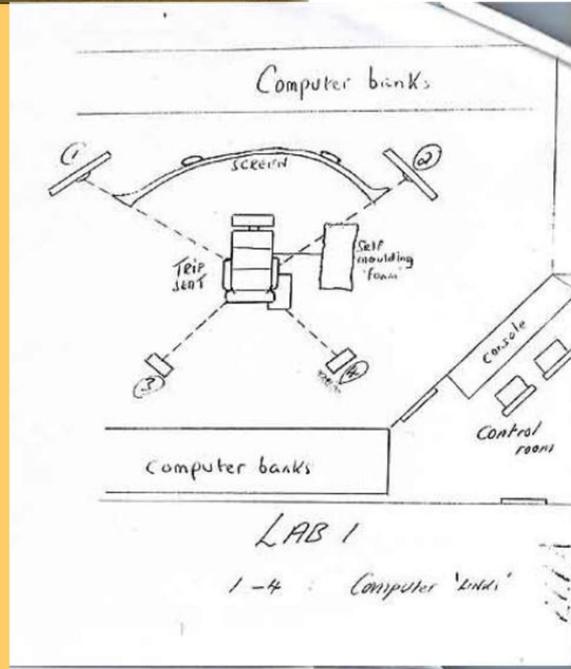

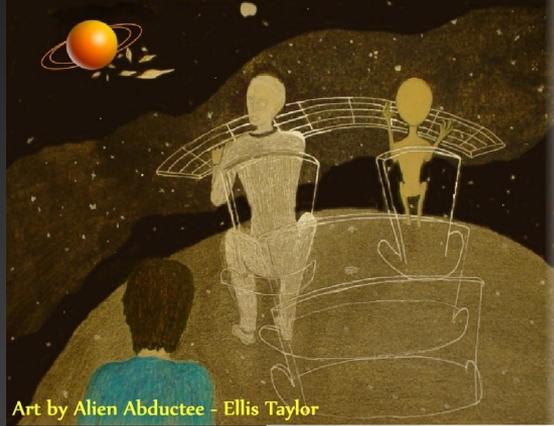

Here is something in the way of proof for the Abduction Phenomenon.

This is a comparison of the art created by two separate and unrelated Alien Abduction experiencers/contactees; lecturer/author Ellis Taylor and former MoD worker, now researcher/housewife Hilary Porter.

On the left is a picture painted by Ellis depicting an abduction recollection he had just a few years ago, when he recalled having been taken aboard a craft; it shows the saucer cockpit and beings; on the right is Hilary's drawing that she made of her similar experience way back in 1970; this is her recall of the saucer cockpit and aliens that she saw during her own abduction. So basically, these drawings were made around 40 years apart, yet we think the viewer will agree, they bear a certain resemblance; but how can this be if the alien experience is merely just a figment of the imagination as skeptics love to keep telling us? - especially as Hilary's drawing had never been in the public domain up to that point.

Now a third image has been added to those of abductee/experiencer Ellis Taylor and Hilary Porter.

Surely, this drawing must be that of another alien abductee one would think, as it is so similar to the others ...but wait.

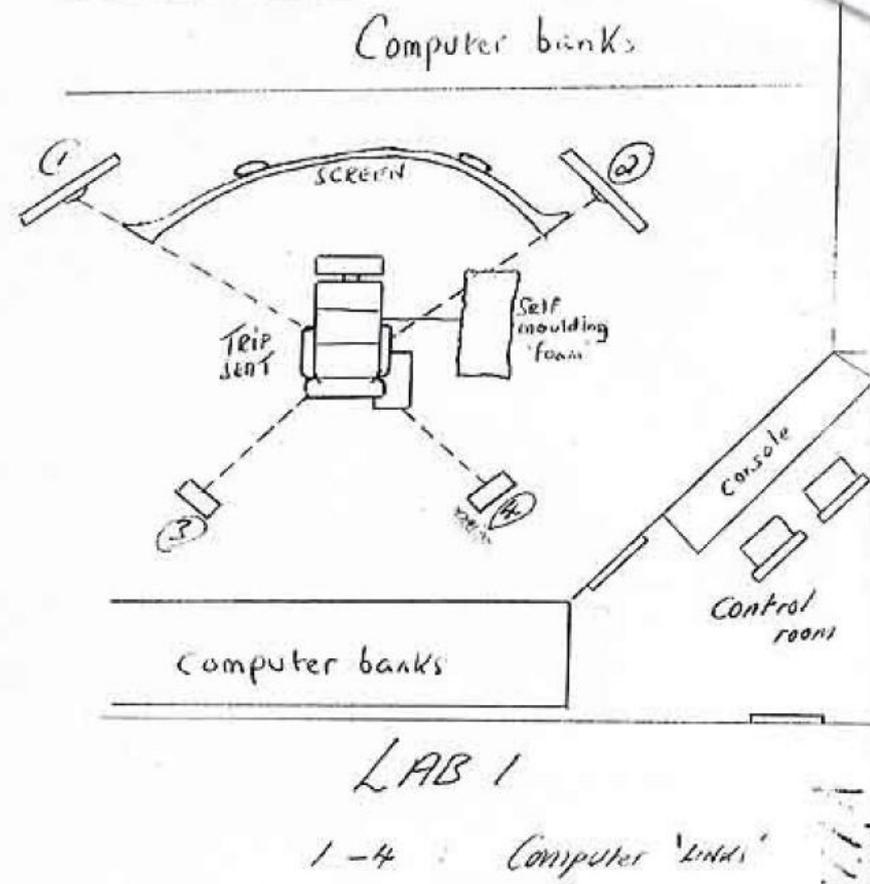

A while back we came across this old drawing on the net made by self-proclaimed whistleblower Barry King.

The image is supposed to depict a laboratory room in an alleged Secret British MILAB (Military Abductions) facility at Peasemore, Berkshire, where he claims to have worked as a Security Officer years ago;

Here we see the 'trip seat', used for programming, deprogramming and reprogramming, among other things.

We think his sketch bears a passing resemblance to the two abductee pictures (rounded room - position of computer screens etc).

We don't know all of the ins-and-outs as it were, but basically, this is the scenario for a MILAB abduction episode:

Depending on an individual's circumstances, (usually subjects living alone), victims will be clandestinely given some subliminal mind programming, ...hypnotic cues which they may unwittingly receive days, weeks, or even months before an abduction is due to take place.

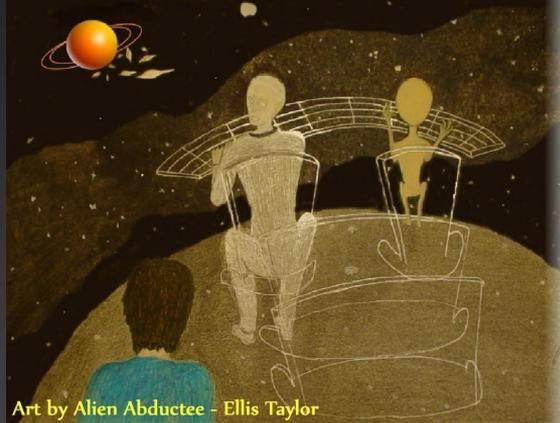

Later, (as and when required), these 'cues' will be 'triggered' via a 'silent' phone call to their home - where a special frequency, (rather like a barely audible dog whistle sound), is sent down the line, which they have been instructed to respond in a certain way to.

Then after this 'mystery' phone call, the victim will receive a visit later that night ...a knock or a ring at their front door; of course, those waiting outside this person's place of residence will be a couple of 'special ops', military guys probably garbed in overalls.

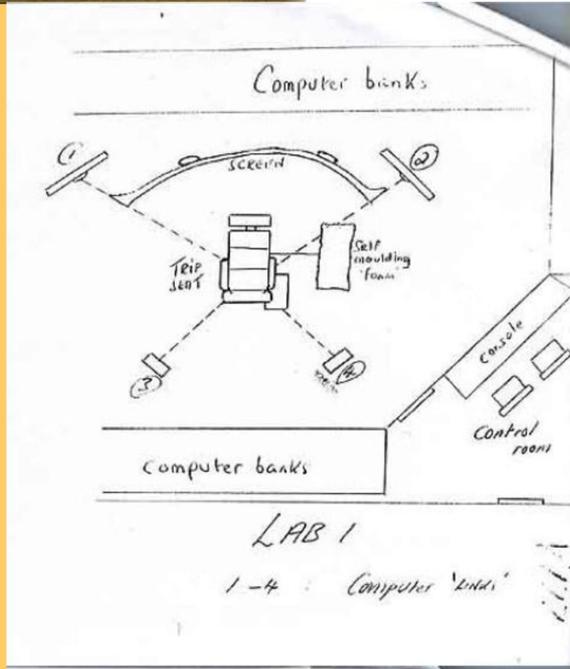

Now in a fully compliant, obedient state, the victim willingly goes with these uninvited visitors, where he or she is helped into the back of an unmarked white van and transported to the 'lab'.

Once there, the victim is strapped to a table, drugged and subjected to psychiatric and/or physical abuse, chip implantation etc, etc.

Finally, when they have served their usefulness, the helpless abductee is, (probably whilst still half-drugged), shown staged footage of actors wearing alien masks - and maybe the odd flying saucer prop as well, perhaps on a screen or through some kind of virtual reality headset - before being returned home; and voilà! ... guess what the victim remembers when they wake up? Not a ghastly and terrifying ordeal in the hands of humans - but a slightly more acceptable Alien Abduction Encounter - a false memory.

Top left and right: art by two alien experiencers, (who are not related) of recalled abduction events that happened 40 years apart.

Bottom; vintage sketch by witness Barry King, showing part of a Top Secret MILAB (Military Abduction) Facility in the UK. Notice the similarities between all 3 images.

Smells which bring back training memories

RELEASING distinctive smells in a military environment may help personnel recall aspects of their basic military training when under stress.

Previous research has demonstrated that material learned in one environment may be difficult to recall in a dramatically different one.

It is believed that memory will be significantly improved if there is a match between the context in which the material is learned and the context in which it is to be retrieved.

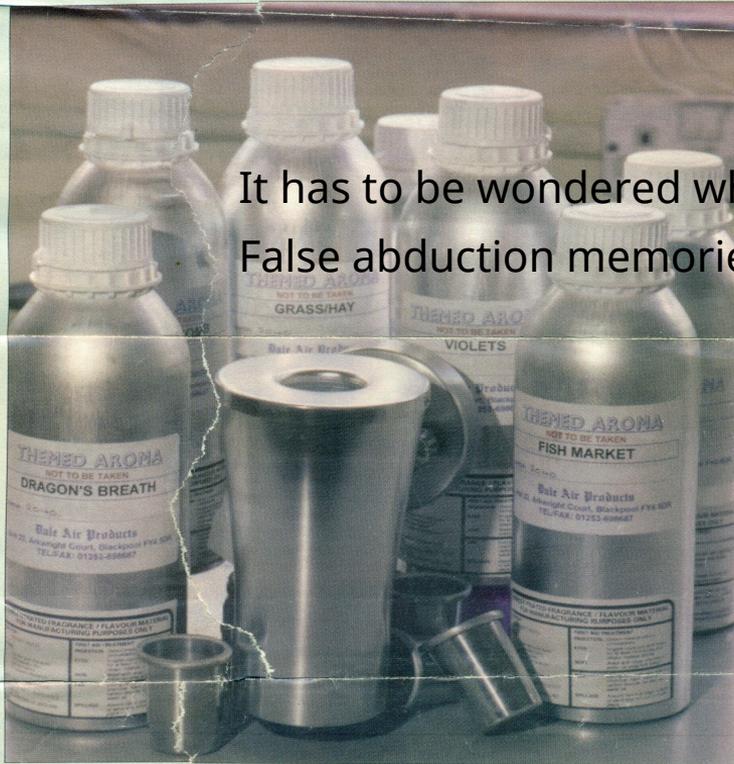

The terms 'environment' or 'context' can be used to refer to physical surroundings, ambient noise or room temperature, to name but a few.

Smell is one such context and may help military personnel recall aspects of their basic training in a combat context, which they could forget under extreme levels of stress and/or workload.

"This is a novel approach since most military personnel research has tended to concentrate on the visual and auditory information channels," explains Darryl Croft, who is conducting the research with Ian Craig of Air Human Factors Group (now part of Centre for Human Sciences, having moved from Air Systems on 1 April 1998).

The project received £23,000 last year from the Inventiveness Programme and £25,000 this year.

For the experimental phase, after a literature trawl, they purchased equipment including four odouriser units and 23 aromas, some with the most unusual of names, for example, dragon's breath, and fish market.

■ The not so sweet-smelling 'aromatherapy' kit.

Evidence from the first experiment — a context reinstatement using 49 participants — suggested that odour cues may improve recall over a 48-hour period.

A second experiment (again using 48 participants) was conducted during July and August. "Unfortunately, the elimination of the smell proved difficult and may have biased the results," explain Ian and Darryl.

A re-run of this experiment will take place during September and a third and a final experiment is scheduled for later this year.

It has to be wondered what else these canisters could be used for?
False abduction memories perhaps?

It's unthinkable for most people that our caring, sharing governments would sanction such things; but unfortunately the situation is far worse than even we can even reveal here; some doors are best left shut.

What we can reveal however, is that the history of secret chemical, biological and nuclear experiments conducted by governments around the world, (including the UK and US), upon its own unsuspecting people is very well documented; and what follows is the unquestionable proof.

Project

Project MK ULTRA.
This concerns Secret Mind Control
Experimentation conducted on the American public by the CIA!
Britain also practised similar testing on its own subjects.
You may not want to believe what you about to read, but it's ALL true!

MK ULTRA

Ken Parsons

This program was conducted from 1953 to 1964, when the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) conducted dozens of experiments on the effects of biological and chemical agents on American citizens without their knowledge in Project MKUltra. These covert tests included subjecting the unwitting subjects to hallucinogenic drugs and other chemicals, among other things.

It is difficult to find official documents about this program; however, in 1976 and 1977, the U.S. Senate conducted investigations and even held a joint committee hearing on Project MKUltra, then published much of what was discovered; you will not believe what they found out.

Please click here for an official report into The CIA's Program of Research in Behavioral Modification

Taken from Wikipedia: Project MKUltra — sometimes referred to as the CIA's mind control program — was the codename given to an illegal and clandestine program of experiments on human subjects, designed and undertaken by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). Experiments on humans were intended to identify and develop drugs and procedures to be used in interrogations and torture, in order to weaken the individual to force confessions through mind control.

Organized through the Scientific Intelligence Division of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), the project coordinated with the Special Operations Division of the U.S. Army's Chemical Corps.<sup>[1]</sup> The program began in the early 1950s, was officially sanctioned in 1953, was reduced in scope in 1964, further curtailed in 1967 and officially halted in 1973.<sup>[2]</sup> The program engaged in many illegal activities;<sup>[3][4][5]</sup> in particular it used unwitting U.S. and Canadian citizens as its test subjects, which led to controversy regarding its legitimacy.<sup>3[6][7][8]</sup> MKUltra used numerous methodologies to manipulate people's mental states and alter brain functions, including the surreptitious administration of drugs (especially LSD) and other chemicals, hypnosis, sensory deprivation, isolation, verbal and sexual abuse, as well as various forms of torture.<sup>[9]</sup>

The scope of Project MKUltra was broad, with research undertaken at 80 institutions, including 44 colleges and universities, as well as hospitals, prisons and pharmaceutical companies.<sup>[10]</sup> The CIA operated through these institutions using front organizations, although sometimes top officials at these institutions were aware of the CIA's involvement.<sup>[11]</sup>

As the Supreme Court later noted, MKULTRA was:

concerned with "the research and development of chemical, biological, and radiological materials capable of employment in clandestine operations to control human behavior." The program consisted of some 149 subprojects which the Agency contracted out to various universities, research foundations, and similar institutions. At least 80 institutions and 185 private researchers participated. Because the Agency funded MKULTRA indirectly, many of the participating individuals were unaware that they were dealing with the Agency.<sup>[12]</sup>

Project MKUltra was first brought to public attention in 1975 by the Church Committee of the U.S. Congress, and a Gerald Ford commission to investigate CIA activities within the United States. Investigative efforts were hampered by the fact that CIA Director Richard Helms ordered all MKUltra files destroyed in 1973; the Church Committee and Rockefeller Commission investigations relied on the sworn testimony of direct participants and on the relatively small number of documents that survived Helms' destruction order.<sup>[13]</sup>

What sort of people are behind such atrocities?

@conspiracystory

Project MKULTRA was a mind control research operation carried out in the United States (as well as other countries like Canada) by the CIA. MKULTRA conducted many different illegal experiments on US and Canadian patients without them knowing exactly what was being done or why. Many of the experiments were so bad that much of the experimentation was done in Canada and other foreign countries to escape United States jurisdiction. The project started in 1950 and lasted until around 1973.

Experiments conducted on unwitting humans and children included things like: torture, verbal and sexual abuse, electrical and chemical shock, the effects of stress on humans, interrogation techniques, subsonic and vibrational disorientation, drugs, radiation, genetic research, brainwashing, the use of prostitutes by agents, gases and poisons.

But that's in the United States, what has all of this got to do with Farnborough, UK? you may be left wondering.

Bearing in mind that we live less than a mile and a half away from QinetiQ and the TAG Farnborough aviation complex, here are two quick, but important anecdotes - by Hilary Porter

A carer for a handicapped girl who attended a local club for those with disabilities, said something to me that I will never forget; she said one day she went out in her car to their local shopping centre in Farnborough with Petra; suddenly the girl became very upset as we passed the airfield, and she said "in there is where they have got my sister", (pointing excitedly to the airfield complex) - and she added "I rarely see my sister now, as she is not allowed out - only now and then, short visits - then she has to go; she lives in there and now has a baby too'.

My friends mother works for the military as a cartographer, (map maker), and years ago, (during the late 1990's), I once began talking to her about the high amount of underground explosions that we had been getting - deep rumbles so bad that they would cause objects to vibrate within our house; she informed me that she had heard rumours that the underground research base there was being expanded - and this enlargement was going beneath North Camp and on to Aldershot.

After learning about all of this, one has to question exactly where we are getting our rapidly advancing knowledge of cloning and DNA from.

Is it only from open, reputable and above board sources?...

...official, ethical, controlled and scrutinised clinical laboratories?

Or, in the name of science, are dark, unethical (and sometimes murderous) experiments being performed on human captives, held in deep subterranean cities? Some never to be seen again.

...nightmare environments where cloning, DNA enrichment, and Alien cross-breeding with human beings is taking place - perhaps right now, as we speak?

Joining The Dots

So you see, the evidence is really beginning to stack up - simply join the dots together.

- Deep Underground Bases - with possibly our own here in Farnborough, (the British equivalent of 'Area 51' in Nevada, United States? which we have jokingly dubbed 'Area 52' - although many a true word said in jest)
- UFO/Paranormal Activity/Alien Appearances
- Activity Mostly Performed Under The Cover of Darkness
- Abductions

We think most will agree, that an intriguing picture has now been laid bare - and it is hoped that this has provided you all with some quality food for thought.

As Hilary's Uncle, (Freddie Stringer - who was then head of Janes Aviation and the Carroll Aircraft Corporation), said with a little chuckle when we tried to press him for more information as to why DERA Farnborough was referred to as 'The Magic Kingdom'...

...'Oh, everything around here is magic!' he retorted.

And that was as far as he would go on the matter.

His knowing look said it all.

In case the reader missed our earlier list... apart from at QinetiQ itself, there remains the question of other entrances to this huge underground facility; where might they be located?

We have shortlisted three strong contenders:

- Within the 38 hectares of grounds at Minley Manor, Minley, Farnborough. (Please 'Google' it for more info about this place).
  - Somewhere in Aldershot; because the QinetiQ deep base is thought to extend up to this major Military Garrison - 4 miles away!
- Or even
- At Pirbright, Surrey - which is as much as 6 miles distant!

'Everything around here is magic.'

The single greatest tool of the New World Order

is ignorance.

Some viewers comments:

“Really interesting, I live overlooking this site and we have lately been woken by loud rumbling and strange noises from that direction during the night.”

“I used to work at TAG and heard all sorts of rumours about the place - but no one would confirm to me whether there was an underground section or tunnels there.”

“Just over a year ago we moved to a place near Sandhurst Academy and have been experiencing strange vibrations and other unexplainable sounds in the location ever since we came here.”

“That's right! I've worked for QinetiQ and its predecessors for over 20 years and I can positively say that there is some truth in this report, but I will not divulge anything more as I have said more than enough as it is.”
